Presidents' Letter: October 15 November 8:

We welcome new chapter member Judy Simkin! Our September meeting was well attended. The scholarship committee program was outstanding, and we offer our congratulations to the recipients who each gave an exceptional summary of their teaching goals. Our best wishes to William Alpert, Travis Bell, Felise DeCastro, Michelle Fitch, and Jennifer Stumph on their teaching careers.

the organization "One Child, Clothing the Spirit", Bernadine will share her experiences in working with children through an unusual venue. She is sincere, inspirational, and we look forward to hearing her.

A big thank you to the Scholarship Committee for all their hard work in selecting such a remarkable group of candidates for our Chapter Grants. We would also like to thank Jackie Adams and Bobbie Mortensen for putting together a beautiful gift basket, which will be auctioned off at the Area III Conference.

We look forward to seeing everyone at our November 8th meeting at Scott' Restaurant.

The Special Projects Committee will be the presenters in charge of the evening's program. Continue to bring backpack supplies to our meetings.

We will have our Buck a Book sale at our monthly meetings. It was well received, so continue to bring those books!!

Would the following members please bring raffle gifts for our November 8th meeting: Carmen Burks, Ann Carter, Chris Cleveland, Sue Cooley, Gail Costello, Joan Cunnings, Carmen Curtis, Pam DeBernardi, and Denise Dolan. Our monthly raffle supports special Chapter projects, and it's a lot of fun!!

Check out our fantastic Chapter website at: www.dkg-zetazeta.org/ Be prepared for a wonderful journey prepared by our Webmaster, Roseann Krane. It's an incredible audio/visual experience!

Our best wishes for a speedy recovery to Betty Leecing.

The Adopt an Angel Special Holiday Project, which is a favorite, holiday charitable program, will again present us with a list of 30 teenagers.

Our Angel Chair Person is Marilyn Steichen with Judy Simkin assisting and they will have the names and information about the Angel Tree.
