Promoting professional and personal growth for members and excellence in education

January 18, 2011, Minutes

Scott's Restaurant, Walnut Creek, CA

- I Call to order: 5:57 PM, Stephanie Brown-Myers presiding
- II Inspiration/Ice Breaker: Think of an "aha" moment you had while you were teaching, that kept you in the field. This was discussed at table groups and reported on after the speaker.
- III Welcome Guests: Jeanne Gelwicks introduced Emily Ehm. Emily taught English while living in Illinois. This was her second visit, her first being the Area III conference. Diana Sawin introduced Karen Martens. Karen retired from teaching in Fremont.
- IV Guest Speaker: Ann Struthers is the Volunteer Program Coordinator for Contra Costa County Employment and Human Services. VESTIA (Volunteer and Emergency Services Team in Action) is a non-profit organization associated with Social Services. They offer a variety of programs serving children and families. Ann noted that they are beginning to see a rise in the number of elderly being served.

Programs include: Ready-to-Work Clothes Closet with multiple county locations to provide business and interview attire; Attitude and Image Employment Seminars and Workshops; Project Ready-to-Learn provides backpacks and school supplies to low income children and youth; Angel Tree and Toys for Our Tots provides holiday gifts to low income and foster youth; College Education Scholarships and Computers; Food Bank and holiday assistance; Cultural Outreach Program provides special events tickets to foster children and caregivers; Campership Program; and, Season of Sharing provides funding for emergency housing and critical assistance services.

Donations also may include furniture, layettes, transportation, medical care and mentoring services.

To learn more about VESTIA, go to www.vestiainc.org. Ann can be reached at astruthers@ehsd.cccounty.us

- V Attendance: Denise Dolan reported tonight's attendance at 38 members and guests. The next meeting will take place February 22, 2011. This meeting will be with AAUW. The speaker, Tam Ma, is the daughter of a Vietnamese boat person of 1979. Today, Tam is in her third year of law school at UC Berkeley and a judicial extern for the Hon. Kimberly Mueller, US Magistrate Judge of the eastern district of California. Ms. Ma was also featured in the latest issue of the California AAUW newsletter, Perspective. She is upbeat, inspirational and motivated to work in social justice.
